
Please join us for the next Biospecimens Interest Group (BIG) Presentation:

Biospecimen Interest Group Presentation

Building 10 / Lipsett Amphitheatre

Tuesday, November 29, 2011

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

“Overcoming barriers and identifying opportunities to collecting high quality human Tissues: Findings of the Neurobiobank Workgroup”

A. Roger Little Ph.D.
Senior Advisor
National Institute of Mental Health

"Rare Disorders Collected and Stored at the NICHD Brain and Tissue Bank for Developmental Disorders"

Ronald Zielke, Ph.D., Director
The Eunice Kennedy Shriver NICHD Brain and Tissue Bank for Developmental Disorders and

“Clinical Biobanking: The Foundation for Personalized Medicine”

David Carpentieri, M.D.
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics and Clinical Pathology, University of Arizona
Assistant Professor of Laboratory Medicine and Pathology, Mayo Medical School

The presentation will be broadcast at <http://videocast.nih.gov> when the event is live.

The Biospecimens Interest Group is supported by the Office of Rare Diseases Research (ORDR), contact: Yaffa Rubinstein rubinsty@mail.nih.gov 301-402-4338 and the Office of Biorepositories and Biospecimen Research (OBRR), contact: Helen Moore moorehe@mail.nih.gov 301-496-0206